

Q1: Retrieve all employee records

A: To retrieve all the records we have to use '{}' in the filter box and then click find

Q2: Find employees who work in the IT department

A: {"department" : "IT"}

Q3: Find employees who have a salary greater than 70,000

A: {"salary" : {"$gt" : 70000}}

Q4: Find employees who joined after 2018

A: {"joining_date" : {"$gt" : "2018-12-31"}}

Q5: Find employees between the ages of 30 and 40

A: {"age" : {"$gte" : 30, "$lte": 40}}

Q6: Increase the salary of all employees in the Finance department by 5%

A: { "department" : "Finance" } { "salary": {"$multiply" : ["$salary", 1.05]} }

Q7: Delete employees who joined before 2010

A: { "joining_date": { "$lt": "2010-01-01" } } (we then click on delete option on this query)

Q8: Find the highest-paid employee

A: In Options, select Sort, ensure the Filter box is empty or {}, choose salary as the field and Descending (-1) as the order, then set Limit to 1.